OUR TICKET.

For Auditor General, DR. DAVID STANTON of Beaver.

For Surveyor General, CAPT. ROBERT B. BEATH of Schuylkill.

From the proceedings of the Republican convention, held in Harrisburg, on Wednesday last the 17th inst., and which we publish in this number of the REPUBLICAN it will be seen, that Dr. David Stanton, of Beaver county was nominated for the important office of Auditor General of the State of Pennsylvania, and that Capt. Robert B. Beath, of Schuylkill county was nominated for Surveyor General of the State.

Mr. Stanton is at present a resident of New Brighton, Beaver county, and is a son of the late Dr. Benjamin Stanton, of Ohio. He was born in 1829, and when twenty-one years of age removed to his present place of residence and commenced the practice of medicine, a profession he is still actively and profitably engaged in, his evidences of merit and qualifications being apparent in diplomas from the Cleveland Medical College and the University of Pennsylvania. In August, 1861, he entered the service of his country as surgeon of the First Pennsylvania Cavalry, and was connected with the Army of the Potomac until promoted to the post of surgeon U. S. V., in November, 1862, from which date until he resigned, in December, 1865, he acted as Superintendent of Hospitals, and as assistant and acting Medical Director of the Northern Department, on the staffs of Generals Heintzelman and Hooker. In 1864 he was breveted lieutenant colonel. The Doctor is of Quaker descent, was an old-time Abolitionist, and is a near relative of the lamented Secretary of War Stanton, to whom he has a strong personal resemblance.

Mr. S. is peculiarly fitted for the important position to which the Republicans of this State have assigned him as their standard bearer.

CAPT. ROBERT B. BEATH.

who was chosen by the Convention as our standard bearer for the office of Surveyor General, was born in Philadelphia January 26, 1839, of Scotch parentage. He served an apprenticeship with Merrick & Sons, at their great Southwark Foundry. At the outset of the war he enlisted from there aa a private, April 20 1861, serving during the three months service in Company G. Twenty-Third Pennsylvania, and was mustered out as sergeant. On September 5, 1861, he was mustered in as sergeant of Company D. Eighty-Eight regiment Pennsylvania volunteers, serving as such until promoted to second lieutenant, dating December 28, 1862. He was wounded in the foot at the second Bull Run battle, in which he participated. In August, 1863, he was promoted to be captain of Company A. Sixth regiment United States colored troops, serving with this company and regiment in all its marches and engagements in front of Petersburg and on the James river.

In the charge on the rebel works at New Market (better known as Chapin's farm), September 29, 1864, he was again wounded in the foot, resulting in the amputation of the right leg below the knee. When able to leave the hospital he was assigned to duty at Camp William Penn, near Philadelphia, returning to his regiment in August, 1865. He was then placed in charge of the counties of Brunswick and Hanover, Freedmen's Bureau, forming the sub-district of Wilmington, and remained in this position until mustered out with the regiment, Septembea 20, 1865, when he received a commission as lieutenant colonel.

Mr. Beath is at present engaged as book-keeper in one of the largest coal collieries in Schuylkill county, and is especially fitted for the important post of Surveyor General, to which his Republican friends will elevate him on the second Tuesday of October next.

The proceedings of the Convention throughout were harmonious in the highest degree, and we have no doubt of a glorious result in October next.

LISTEN.—We say without fear of contradiction, that no house in the country sells better goods or at lower prices than Burnside & Thomas.

HARRISBURG.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

TEMPORARY ORGANIZATION.

At the hour of twelve o'clock on the 17th inst., Mahlon Dickerson, chairman of the State Central Committee, called the Convention to order.

Mr. Quay nominated Messrs. Wm Green, A. F. Fields and James Bonebrake as doorkeepers of the Convention, which was agreed to.

The Chairman then directed Geo. W. Hammersly, Esq., to call over the roll of delegates, and it appeared that every Senatorial and Representative district in the State was represented. We have not space to give their names.

The delegates then selected the following gentlemen as the committees viz:

The report was unanimously adopted, and Mr. Elliott assumed the duties of the Chair.

Mr. Elliott, on taking the chair, returned his thanks to the Convention for the honor conferred upon him by calling him to preside over the deliberations of this body. This Convention was called together for the purpose of putting in nomination candidates for the position of Auditor General and Surveyor General of the State. He would inflict no lengthy remarks upon this Convention, but was ready to transact business.

Mr. D. S. Elliott (Bedford) offered the following:

Resolved, That hereafter the Republican State Central Committee shall consist of one president, three secretaries, treasurer, and one member from each Senatorial district as now represented in this Convention. Referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

Mr. Quay moved a committee of three be appointed to wait upon the Committee on Resolutions and ascertain whether they are ready to report. Messrs. Quay, Elliott and M'Cullough were appointed the committee.

Mr. R. T. Wood offered the following, which was referred to the committee on resolutions:

Resolved, That this Convention elect a chairman of the State Central Committee.

Mr. Quay, chairman of committee, reported that the committee on resolutions would be ready to report in five minutes.

Several gentlemen were called upon to address the Convention, but they declined to say anything until the adoption of the resolutions or platform.

Finally, however, the Hon. John Cessna was discovered to be in the hall, and some delegate suggested that he be called upon. The suggestion was enthusiastically endorsed, and Mr. Cessna stepped forward and entertained the large audience in a few able and well suited remarks.

NOMINATIONS.

Mr. Quay moved that the Convention now proceed to make nominations for Auditor General and Surveyor General, and that the Committee on Resolutions be informed on that fact. The motion was agreed to, and the committee were so informed.

Before the Committee on Resolutions had returned, Mr. Cessna introduced the Hon. Mr. Wallace, the only white member of Congress from South Carolina.—Mr. Wallace was enthusiastically received, stepped forward and addressed the convention in a clear and forcible manner.

Mr. Quay moved the Convention do now proceed to place candidates in nomination for the position of Auditor General. Agreed to. When

W. R. Leeds nominated Col. David Stanton, of Beaver county.

John Rowe nominated F. C. Hooten, of Chester county.

B. B. Strang nominated Harrison Allen, or Warren County.

J. W. Starr nominated D. B. McCreary of Erie.

Before proceeding to a ballot Mr. Starr withdrew the name of D. B. McCreary.

On motion of Mr. Quay, the Convention proceed to vote for Auditor General, when

Col. David Stanton received	95	votes.
F. C. Hooten	" 22	"
Harrison Allen	" 16	"

Col. David Stanton having received the majority of votes, he was declared the candidate, and on motion of Hon. B. B. Strang, the nomination was made unanimous.

NOMINATION FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL.

The Convention then proceeded to place candidates for Surveyor General in nomination.

Gen. Louis Wagner nominated R. B. Beath, of Schuykill county.

Mr. Hemphill of Clearfield county nominated Wm. P. Wilson, of Centre county.

Mr. King nominated Sam'l L. Smedley, of Philadelphia.

Mr. D. S. Elliott nominated J. M. Campbell, of Cambria.

Mr. Starr nominated D. B. M'Creary, of Erie.

The name of Mr. M'Creary was withdrawn before a ballot was had.

WITHDRAWAL OF GEN. CAMPBELL.

Before the Convention went into a ballot the following letter was presented from General Campbell, viz:

JOHNSTOWN, May 1. 1871.—Capt. David Hamilton—DEAR SIR: When you were elected a delegate to represent Cambria county in the Republican State Convention to assemble in Harrisburg on the 17th inst., a resolution was adopted instructing you to support my renomination for the office of Surveyor General. For this action on the part of our county, and for the many expressions of confidence and favor by friends in various parts of the State, I am indeed greatful. But having been twice nominated and elected to that office, I have no desire to infringe upon the long established usages of the great party that has thus honored me, and would therefore request that you do not present my name to the Convention, and should it be presented by any other delegate, I authorize you to have it withdrawn.

With an earnest hope that wisdom and harmony may characterize the deliberations of the Convention, and that the principles of the Republican party may be vindicated and reaffirmed by the triumphant election of the candidates to be placed in nomination. I am very truly yours, J. M. CAMPBELL.

WITHDRAWAL OF THE HON. WM. P. WILSON.

Mr. Brown presented a letter from Mr. Wilson declining the nomination for Surveyor General, which was read as follows:

BELLEFONTE, April 24, 1871.

Col. W. W. Brown, Editor Bellefonte Republican: DEAR SIR—The Republican county convention having instructed you to vote for and use all fair and honorable means to secure my nomination as a candidate for Surveyor General in the Convention which meets in Harrisburg on the 17th of May, you are hereby released from those instructions and I request you to withdraw my name from the list of candidates for that office. There will be presented to the convention the names of several gentlemen who have been good, true and brave soldiers, whose claims should at this time be respected, and the soldier element of the country should be fairly represented on the ticket placed in nomination by the Convention.

Hoping that unity of action and harmony will prevail in the proceedings of the Convention, and the ticket which will be placed in nomination, will on the second Tuesday of October result in a glorious and triumphant victory for the great Republican party — the party which is and has been the great conservator of the people and liberty, and to which we must look for the best interests and future welfare and prosperity of the country. I am Sir,

Respectfully, &c.,
WM. P. WILSON.

BALLOT FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL.

A ballot was then had for Surveyor General, with the following result:

Robert B. Beath received	87	votes.
Samuel L. Smedley "	40	"

Col. Robert B. Beath was then declared duly nominated as the candidate for Serveyor General, which, on motion of Mr. Moreland, of Pittsburgh, was made unanimous.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Kneass, Strang and Leeds was appointed by the chair to wait upon Dr. Stanton and Robert B. Beath, and inform them of their nomination.

The committee returned and introduced the candidates, Dr. Stanton and Col. Beath to the convention.

Dr. Stanton being called upon said:

GENTLEMEN—To one who has never appeared in the role of a candidate, a mere novice in political affairs, the present is an embarrassing position, and I am already brought to feel my insufficiency. the best auditors are those who have the least to say, and I would doubtless better show my fitnes for the position for which you have nominated me by maintaining silence. I must, however, express to you my gratitude for the confidence you have so generously manifested in me, and while I feel a deep sense of the responsibility, I am also free to confess to a feeling of pride at being selected as one of the standard bearers of the Republican party of the grand old Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

We all love and honer the old Keystone State, and I feel it to be a motive of justifiable pride to be called a Pennsylvanian, although, owing to circumstances over which I had no control, I was not born within her borders; yet I am happy to say that on the day when I arrived at my majority, I crossed the line and became a Pennsylvanian. We are proud of Pennsylvanian's honest, peaceful birth, and her Quaker father Penn, of the history of her struggles for independence, of her revolutionary warriors and statesmen, of her barefooted heroes of Valley Forge. We are proud of her old State House, the birth place of the Declaration of Independence, and its liberty bell, which "proclaimed liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof." She has a noble record in all the wars in defense of the National flag, but especially do we glory in her three hundred thousand soldiers in the late war of Democratic rebellion. Her South Mountain, Antietam and Gettysburg, with their dead and living heroes, shall furnish bright and ever glorious pages in American history.

We may truly boast of her wonderful resources, her broad expanse of fertile acres, her majestic mountains, clothed with forests of timber and pregnant with mineral wealth, her extensive fields of coal, which give warmth and cheer to the hearthstones of millions; her fountains of oil, which pour forth light into all parts of the world. We are proud of her energy and enterprise her mills and manufactories, her arts and industry. We have great and efficient institutions of learning, of charity and of mercy. We feel that the State has been honored by her noble governors and by her great and good men whom she has sent to the national councils and to foreign courts, and the influence they have wielded for the nation's good.

And now, Republicans, it behooves us, as the present, and I trust, the future guardian of her prosperity, to guard well her interests and her honor and see that her good name shall be perpetuated. Let us not, in the coming contest, forget the great power and influence and the great consequent responsibilities of the old Keystone in the Republican arch. It may matter little what persons may be elected to the office of Surveyor General and Auditor General, but it is of the greatest importance to the interests of the party, and therefore to the interest of the State and nation, that whomsoever elected, their election shall be chronicled as a Republican victory. For inasmuch as the State elections of this fall will show the political drift as they will foreshadow those of seventy-two, they can scarcely be deemed of less importance—our victory this fall will secure the re-election of President Grant. It is but a continuation of the old struggle between freedom and oppression, between the spirit of loyalty and the spirit of treason.

It is true the war is over, the armies of the South are crushed and scattered, the prodigal sons have returned to their father's mansion, and partaken of their share of the fatted calf, but unlike the prodigal of old, they still cherish their old feelings of animosity and rebellion.

It is true we have abolished slavery, and engrafted on the Constitution those principles of justice, freedom and equality, which the Constitution of a free nation should and would have proclaimed at its birth, had it not been for the inherited curse of human bondage. But it is not enough that we should merely enact these amendments; it will require the administration of a loyal, justice loving party to enforce their observance.

The Democratic party has already proclaimed them null and void, and their Southern masters who are clamoring for their repeal, will force that plank into their platform of the next Presidential campaign. The bloody outrages of the Democratic organizations of the South, of daily, or rather of nightly occurrence, and their open justification by the Democratic press and by their members on both floors of Congress, clearly foretell the issues of seventy-two, and foreshadow the reign or terror which will ensue if we fail in the performance of our sacred duty should they succeed in the accomplishment of their vile purposes. In view of their tremendous, increasing and unscrupulous efforts to regain their lost power, it behooves us to be on the alert. We must not permit the reins of power so soon to fall into the hands of those who proved so shamefully recreant to their sacred trust. They must not succeed in their desire to render nugatory the fruits of the late war which cost so much precious blood and treasure.

The party which crushed rebellion should remain in power until the spirit of treason is dead—until the good work is thoroughly and completely accomplished beyond the possibility of being undone—until at least one generation of rebels has gone—until the youngest soldier's orphan, whom our State is educating, has grown old enough to vindicate at the ballot-box the principles for which his father died—until our wasted commerce is restored, and the last cent of the nation's war debt paid—until the last slaveholder or his heir who might claim pay from Government for an emancipated slave, and the last speculator in confederate, bonds have gone where they might justly present their claims to the great paymaster of iniquity. Yes, our country must be ruled by men regardful of her welfare, regardful of her honor, loyal to her flag; by a party which, by its life-long opposition to slavery, degradation of labor and treason by its fostering care of home industries, by its regard for the God-given rights of manhood, aye, by its fear of the Great Ruler of Nations, has shown its appreciation of the hopes, the aspirations and necessities of a free republic.

Republicans, let us now go to work in earnest and together. We have Republicans enough in this State to secure a victory by twenty thousand majority if each Republican will cast one vote; if we see to it that no Democrat shall cast more than one vote. Our family quarrels are over, and thereby falls the great hope of the Democratic party. With the promise on my part that I will endeavor to make myself worthy of your generous confidence, I again thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me.

COL. BEATH INTRODUCED.

Col. R. B. Beath being called for, said:

Fellow Republicans: It would no doubt be in order for me to make a long apology, stating the honor conferred on me was both unsought, undesired and unsolicited by me; but all that I have to say on that subject you will please consider said. I am now ready for the work you may lay out for us to do. Owing to circumstances over which I had no control, I was born in the Third ward of the city of Philadelphia, and this fact has infused into my nature a modesty which prevents me from making any speech upon this occasion

He closed by stating that he fought under the banner of the Unconditional Republicans, and that he was prepared to go to work in earnest in the campaign, and had no doubt Dr. Stanton was also prepared to do so.

THE PLATFORM.

Mr. Errett, from the committee on resolutions, made the followinf report:

The Republicans of Pennsylvania, assembled in convention, declare that

1. They demand of the Legislature the immediate passage of an act calling a State Convention to revise and amend the Constitution for the purpose, among other things, of

Abolishing and prohibiting special legislation:

Securing the election of all State officers by the people:

Establishing a judicial system that will make justice prompt and sure:

And providing for the passage of general laws that shall so encourage industrial enterprise, that Pennsylvania shall be enabled to take her just place in the front rank of all the States.

2. They demand of Congress that the credit of the nation shall be faithfully maintained; home industry encouraged and protected: an adequate civil service system established for regulating appointments to office; taxes reduced to the lowest possible limit consistent with the steady, but not too rapid, extinction of the national debt; the honor of the republic sustained at home and abroad; the rights of every man protected in all the States, and every man, entitled thereto, secured in the polling of one vote, and no more, at each election.

3. They declare their unalterable attachment to the principle of protection to home industry in the levying of tariff duties, in accordance with the wise policy which has existed from the foundation of the government to this time.

4. They commend the policy of retrenchment and wholesome enforcement of the laws, which has prevailed since the election of General Grant to the Presidency, and which has resulted in the first two years of his administration in reducing the national debt over two hundred millions, and in curtailing the taxes to the extent of eighty millions annually. They commend also, the similar policy which has prevailed under Republican rule in Pennsylvania, resulting in paying off the war debt of three and a half millions; reducing the State debt from forty to thirty millions; and in abolishing the State tax on real estate. It is to the fact that both the State and nation have been in Republican hands, we owe the accomplishment of such gratifying results; and it is to the continuance of this policy. The return of the Democrats to power in either State or nation, must inevitably be attended with a return to extravagance in expenditures, to the impairment of State and national credit, and to the abandonment of that protection to free labor under which our industry has thriven and our people been made prosperous.

5. That in the judgment of this Convention, the time has come when the State tax on personal estate may be safely abolished, and the other taxes imposed by State laws, may also prudently be reduced without injury to the credit of the Commonwealth.

6. That as an indication of what the people may fear from a return of the Democratic party to power, we point to the criminal waste of the time and money of the people by the present Democratic majority in the State Senate.—The Legislature has been now nearly five months in session, and is not yet nearly through with its legitimate business, owing to the obstructive policy of this majority. In all this time scarcely a single measure of public interest has been perfected; and the time has been wasted in their efforts to force on our State an unjust apportionment, and to break down the registry law against illegal voting, that they might thereby pave the way to their return to power through violence and fraud.

7. We commend to the support of the people of the State the candidates we have this day nominated, for State officers. They are honest, capable and faithful to the Constitution, and in every way worthy the public confidence. We ask for their election, as an endorsement of the State and National administrations, as an approval of the time honored principles of the Republican party, which we reaffirm in their nomination, and as a fitting rebuke to the Democratic party for its destructive national policy, for its adherence to the side of violence and wrong in the South; and for the spirit it has betrayed in the Senate of this State this winter—where it has made everything bend to the promotion of partisan interests, defeated the holding of a State Convention to amend our Constitution, wasted the public time in childish trifling, and entailed upon the State a huge bill of expense for a session prolonged beyond

BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

HOW COULD I!

He carried my satchel to school,
And me through the drifts carried, too,
Could I think why he hugged me so close?
If I couldn't how could I? could you?

At eve, he tied under my chin
My hood, with its bright ribbons blue,
Why he gazed in my face could I tell?
If I couldn't how could I? could you?

He told me my eyes were so black,
The brightest of any he knew;
I blushed and looked down—could I help it?
If I couldn't, how could I? could you?

He left on my cheek a warm kiss,
Then off with the lightning speed flew;
If I could, I'd have scolded and stamped;
If I couldn't, how could I? could you?

'Twas long years ago, and since then,
He has spoken words loving and true;
I only leaned close ro his breast,
For how could I help it? could you?

Country Newspapers.

We have grown tired of the dull and monotonous appearance of the "country" newspapers of this State. There is such a striking similarity between the out-side pages of one-half of them that our eyes have become wearied of their very sight, and we sigh for a change.—There is evidently something radically wrong with our suburban press, and that something is a new-fangled idea called "patent outsides," by which one-half of the contents of the majority of the weekly newspapers of the State are duplicated.

These "patent outsides" are manufactured in the large cities by contract, and furnished to the country papers at an expense but a little more than the cost of the paper on which they are printed. Some two or three columns of the two pages thus printed—nearly all the country journals are quartos—contain advertisements for which the city printer alone receives pay. A few years ago this business was wholly confined to the West, where it started. Now it has spread to the East, and is fast robbing the country press of all originality.

This cheap, in more senses than one, way of getting out a paper, while generally adopted, is, of course, discountenanced by the respectable and influential weeklies, of which there are quite a number in the States. It is chiefly resorted by the smaller journals, which have a hard struggle for existence. But even these should dispense with it.—If a paper is worth anything at all, its editor should try to make it readable, and if he is not suited to the task he should resign in favor of somebody else.

We have been led into this train of thought by reading an admirable essay on "The Local Newspaper" delivered before the recent meeting of the Pennsylvania Editorial Association at Harrisburg, by Mr. Henry T. Darlington.—This gentleman himself conducts one of the best weekly newspapers published in the State, which is thoroughly at home on agriculture and politics, railroads and the tariff, local and foreign matters, and, in fact, everything which comes within the editorial purview. His essay is a good lecture to the bucolic editorial fraternity, and tells them in plain terms to rely less upon their scissors in preference to patent outsides. Mr. Darlington says of the local newspaper:

During the last twenty years the local or country newspaper has grown to be one of the most characteristic and important of American institutions. No other one is so extensively and universally diffused through every part of the continent, and in no other is there so much that is hemogeneous in its development. Whether it appears in the form of a four column daily or a nine-column weekly, its principal features and objects are almost the same. Its sphere as a distinctively local journal is the expression and encouragement of the interests that may belong to the particular community in which it circulates; and as those interests may chance to be limited or expanded in their nature, the tone and purposes of the local newspaper are quite sure to bear toward them a reciprocal relation.

The conduct of a country paper is no easy undertaking. It requires in the editor experience, ability, industry, and tact, a very small word for a valuable quality. After he has devoted sufficient room to his home affairs, he can always, by the exercise of tact, fill up the remaining space with selections from the writings of others. But Mr. Darlington has something to say on this subject which is worthy of attention:

How to make our newspapers indispensible, and thereby prosperous and powerful, is a subject that may justly command the earnest consideration of the members of this association. I can only assume to give an individual opinion upon which to hang further discussion. Besides the general course that has been already indicated, there are in almost every case some special features that may be elaborated to more or less advantage, according to situation and circumstances. In the country and the smaller towns, where it often happens that the local paper is the only one taken in a household, it is important that a careful digest or summary of the general news should be given. There is seldom room for detailed accounts of occurrences abroad, and as a general rule it is best that these should be omitted. The present taste is better suited with short pithy paragraphs in reference to subjects away from home.

It will be noticed that the veteran editor we have quoted does not include "patent outsides" or "insides" among the things which makes a paper indispensable, nor does any other editor who knows anything of journalism, or who takes a pride in his profession. They rob a paper of all independence, individuality, and origiuality. A country editor is brought into closer contact with his readers than his brother of the city. He knows their feelings, their opinions, and their wants better, and he should be the last to endeavor to make other men's ideas assimilate to his locality.—Phila., Pres.

The Bright Side.

As the chaff is suffered to remain with the wheat for a time, so are the wicked with the righteous, that their wickedness may be over-balanced by whatever good it is in their province to perform. Wickedness in every form, each varying in its direful tendencies, it is true, predominates, but after viewing it as it presents itself, and considering the present state of society in general, let us turn to the bright side of the picture, and see the many advantages gained by it to some people—particularly in a financial point.

Take, for instance, men prominent in business, at the bar, in the forum, and within the pale of the church. Now, taking it for granted that the motives of these men are honorable, their actions praiseworthy, and their character unimpeachable, still they alike are benefitted by the existing evils, as we will presently show. First, there are our ministers of the gospel who receive their "big salaries," and enjoy the blessings and privileges of their social position. Where and what would they be were it not for the wickedness they are hired to assist in putting down? In proportion as the evils increase, of course the more labor is required to suppress them, and men who feel confident that they are "able for the work," are duly hired and paid.

The question under this theme next occurs:—"What claim have the inventors, manufacturers and salesmen of our burglar-alarms, burglar-proof safes, locks, keys, and firearms, upon these benefits? Many persons are rather inclined to be thievish and prying, and have fingers that possess wonderful adhesive qualities when coming into contact with anything that takes their fancy, therefore they are not idle in this sense of the word. We must lock and bar these fellows out, if we would save our goods. Here are our inventors, mechanics, etc., whom we well repay for their services in this case. Their fortune is indeed great.

In many other cases we are compelled to lock and bar in all violators of the law, and chain up all the wild beasts that have too long been allowed to run at large, as a protection of our property and lives. Here come in our judges, counsellors, politicians, and the "bread-and-butter" brigade on the double-quick, making for the fat officers the first thing, not excepting the raw recruits who have just turned their backs on college life to battle in earnest. And here are our policemen, sheriffs and jailors. These all come in for their share of the profits. Hang or imprison as many as you will, it is all business to them; "there's money in the thing." The men who made that rope and erected that scaffold are not to be excluded. The more work, the more pay. The undertaker who boxes up the dead is last, but very far—indeed the farthest—of being least.

Certainly, something good will come out of all the wickedness we see around us. The chaff, as we have once said, must be suffered to remain with the wheat; the immoral with the virtuous; the evil-doers with the righteous, each constituting as its necessary element a world, in which arise mighty empires, communities and classes.

The Cradle of Genius.

It is one of the mysteries of life that genius, that noblest gift of God to man, is nourished by liberty. Its greatest works have been achieved by the sorrowing ones of the world in tears and despair. Not in the brilliant saloon, furnished with every comfort and elegance—not in the library, well fitted, soft carpeted, and looking out upon a smooth green lawn or a broad expanse of scenery not in ease and competence, is genius born and nurtured; but more frequently in adversity and destitution, amid the harassing cares of a straightened household, bare and fireless garrets, with the noise of squalid children in the midst of the turbulence of domestic contentions, and in the deed gloom of uncheered despair is genius born and reared. This is its birth-place, and in scenes like these, unpropitious, repulsive, studied, and trained themselves until they have at last emanated out of the gloom of that obscurity, the shining lights of their times—become the companions of kings, the guides and teachers of their kind, and exercised an influence upon the world amounting to a species of intellectual legislation.

If promises from man to man have force, why not from man to woman?—Their very weakness is the charter of their power, and they should not be injured because they cannot return it.

Frugality may be termed the daughter of prudence, the sister of temperance and the parent of liberty. He that is extravagant will quickly become poor, and poverty will enforce dependence and invite corruption.

Logic of Figures.

Statistics may be true or false, accordingly as true or false inferences are deduced from them, but there can be no doubt of the meaning of the following figures, taken from the partial returns which have been made to the census office at Washington, showing the assessed value of real and personal property in eight of the Southern States, under the census recently taken, as contrasted with the returns of the census of 1850:

	Assessed value, 1860.	1870.
North Carolina	$292,296,602	$132,046,391
Louisana	435,587,265	250,588,510
Kentucky	628,212,993	423,776,099
Florida	68,929,685	42,167,164
Mississippi	509,472,913	154,035,527
Georgia	618,232,387	202,565,557
Virginia and W. Va.	657,621,336	458,002,867
Total	$3,109,953,880	$1,455,782,595
Decrease		$1,654,171,355

A portion of this alarming depreciation is to be accounted for by the deduction of the value of slave property and other losses inflicted upon those States during the war; but even when these allowances have been fully made, the fact still remains that there has been a steady general decrease in values during the decade just closed.

There is no effect without a cause, nor need one go far to look for the reasons which have produced this unsatisfactory state of affairs. The elements which build up a State and appreciate values are capital and labor. Wherever labor is respected, capital will be encouraged to go. In the States of the North and Northwest, where order, security and equal rights exist for all, labor from all quarters of Europe is constantly seeking homes, and capital is on the alert for investment. Hence, notwithstanding the rigor of their winter climate—and other drawbacks and disadvantages—the immense strides which those States have made in population, wealth and power; while in spite of the natural advantages of the States comprised in the above table—their balmy climate, their cheap lands and remarkable facilities for transportation, they have retrogressed almost in the ratio of the advance of the others. The following exhibit of the native and foreign born population of the States named teaches a remarkable lesson:

	Native.	Foreign.
Wisconsin	690,320	364,845
Minnesota	436,058	277,840
Iowa	987,680	204,057
Total	2,114,058	846,232
Virginia	1,211,383	13,578
Georgia	1,184,193	11,145
North Carolina	1,068,113	3,022
Total	3,463,689	27,745

This immense disparity is perhaps the most effective commentary which could be made upon the suicidal policy of the South in keeping alive its baffled pro-slavery spirit, and in nursing its morbid public sentiment of contempt for labor. No efforts of thoughtful and far-seeing men, such as the representatives of the Southern States at the emigration meeting held in New York a couple of weeks ago, will be successful, so long as opinions like the following views of Colonel Claiborne, declared at a recent important public meeting in Nashville, Tennessee, are entertained by the Southern people. He said:

"It was all stuff about the dignity and honor of labor. A man that labored was not honored; his friends might shake his hand but would not honor him as the man that was rich. The value of teaching a man to labor was to teach him to make an independent living and take care of himself. But who encourages labor? Nobody.

This is the spirit which has deterred immigration and brought about the poverty of which the South complains. Labor will not go where it knows it will fail to receive just treatment. No matter how inviting the climate, how generous and cheap the lands, or with what lessened exertion the emigrant can provide for the necessities of himself and family, he will inevitably choose the bleakness and harshness and comparative sterility of the North, with their compulsions of incessant toil, rather than those States where labor is stigmatized, though they should flow withhoney.

Recent events in Europe will doubtless give a strong impetus to emigration from France and Germany, while the influx of labor from other countries continues steadily to increase. If the South desires to secure this element of progress she must first prove herself worthy of it, and this can only be done by getting rid of her false notions of caste and privilege and by learning to respect manhood for its own sake, irrespective of ancestry or race. At present, with the sacrifices of opinion and conscience which the settler has to make, lands in the South are dear at any price.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

A Sentiment.—To the watcher at night, how slowly the clock tells the passing hours! In the day time how the same sound is swallowed up in the hurrying tread of myriad feet, in the roll of carriages, in the thunder and shriek of the locomotive, and in the thousand and one mingled animate and inanimate voices that swell the chorus of a great city? Yet the moments flee all the same, and inscribe their indelible record for good or ill.

"There is an old story that a Jew, while indulging in a morsel of forbidden food, had his meal interrupted by a terrific thunder storm, and that as the thunder roared and the lightning flashed around him, he exclaimed:—"Plesh my soul vot a bodder shast about a leetle pork.'

Home Sweet Home.

We often hear the question asked of such and such a one, "What is his standing in society?" or, "What is his standing in church or among business men?" But we never think of asking before we take him into our confidence—"How does he stand at home?" And yet the man who can make reply to this question with an untroubled heart and a clear conscience, is a hero not so often met with, and he is worth looking after and closely cultivating.

"Home again, dearest! Safe at home, once more! O, how I have missed you!" So exclaims a glad wife, as she meets with a caress from the weary man for whose coming she has watched and waited until the twilight has deepened into night. She draws him into the cheerful family-room, talking all the while, and busying herself in the meantime in sundry little contrivances to make him comfortable, and here come the children! You hear chirping voices and pattering feet in the hall long before the little rosy faces come in sight.

What shouting and climbing, and what playful disputing to see who shall get to papa first! And then there is a headlong race and a promiscuous scramble, ending in a general heels-over-head tumble, at a suggestion from mamma that papa would like somebody to fetch his slippers, maybe.

How pleasantly she scolds over the distracting noise, with a "Now, children, do be quiet!" But it is plain to see that she enjoys the aforesaid noise as much as any of them, while to the contented man, who is so snugly ensconsced in the most comfortable chair in the room, this hour of relaxation is a full payment for all the toils and weariness of the day. This is one of the men who stand well at home.

"How I have missed you!"

You must stand well at home before anybody there will ever say those words to you, just as they ought to be said, "How I have missed you!"

How much of grateful affection is expressed in that one short sentence! It tells of hours of tender, brooding thought for an absent loved one. What a blessed thing it is to be missed. How we treasure love's remembrance.

How involuntarily the question arises in the heart of the absent, "Do they miss me at home?" And how desolate and bitter the heart when we feel that there are none to miss us. Not one to send loving wishes and thoughts out after us. Not one kind voice to greet us when we come. How very hard it must be to lead a loveless life. I think there can be no other cross so hard to bear.

God pity and soften the man whose standing at home is not good; whose family shrink away in fearful silence as his foot crosses the threshold; whose children shun the room that he darkens with his presence; whose wife meets him with a pale, spiritless, crushed look which tells how small is her hope of a caress, how scanty have been the loving words and looks that have brightened her life. God help those who love him, for it is a penance to love such a man. And God bless the generous, cheerful, large-hearted man who always brings the sunshine with him; who leaves his cares and his business "down town," and brings only his own cheerful and cheering self home to his family; for his face is a never failing source of gladness to those who love him; and his tenderness is their highest pride and surest shield, after God.

Ah! if your standing at home isn't a good one, dear reader, irrespective of sex, be in a greater hurry to make it so than you are to do any other thing in this world. Don't wait until the memory of the grieved look upon some dear face—almost habitual to it, by reason of your habitual kindness—subdues you into gentleness; when that face has gone forever from your gaze, and you can never call forth a smile to dwell upon it again.

The Rise and Fall of Napoleon III.

The history of France in the seventh decade of the century is as remarkable as her history during the decade that she was ruled by Napoleon I. (1804-1814). At the beginning of 1861 France was the first nation in Europe, and Napoleon III. was the first man in France. The success that had waited on the French arms in the Russian war and in the Italian war had atoned for the disasters of 1812-15. The hegemony of Europe had passed to France after the defeat of Russia: and though the Emperor's Italian policy had by no means pleased his subjects, it had done much to raise him in the estimation of the world at large; and France had the benefit of his action, and of the use to which he had put her means. Had he died at that time he would have had a high place in history as a great and successful sovereign, who, like Augustus, had obtained power by bad means, but had used it so well as to make men overlook its origin. Whether he had meant to create the Italian kingdom might be a point for dispute; but it would have been clear that that kingdom never could have existed but for his action. Nor was it a light thing that he had freed Europe from that odious Russian supremacy which had weighed upon its mind for forty years, and the continuance of which would have been incompatible with the independence of any European nation. Unfortunately for his fame he did not die, but lived to add to the illustrations afforded by the history of his family that "naught may endure but mutability;" and the change that came over his fortune was his own work, and can be placed to the account of no other man, nor charged upon the fickleness of the multitude. He did nothing but blunder and fail for almost ten years; so that his fall, astounding as it was, was nothing but the effect of his errors. His first great mistake was his assumption of an attitude of hostility to the United States on the occurrence of the secession rebellion. Though the French Emperor's interference in the affairs of Mexico was not caused by the secession war, it was occasioned by that event. When the Emperor had to withdraw his army from Mexico, rather than see it driven out of that country by an American army, and disgracefully to abandon the Archduke Maximilian to his fate, the French people were not moved to anger against the American people, but they saw that their Emperor had brought disgrace upon their country, and he sank in their estimation. He blundered again in 1863 when he proposed that a European Congress should be assembled, without having first ascertained that the proposition would be acceptable to all the great powers; and the rebuff he then received from England degraded him in the eyes of his subjects, and did not elevate him in the consideration of foreigners. But what injured him most was the manner in which he was managed and outwitted by Count Von Bismarck in the interest of Prussia.

The Triumphs of Old Age.

What is happening to the old men?—According to all established precedents, they should retire, give themselves to contemplation, and leave the busy affairs of life to a younger race. That may have been the practice in ancient times but in our day they hold fast to work, and rule the work right royally. Von Moltke, quite juvenile at seventy, plans and executes such a campaign as modern ages have never witnessed; his sovereign, tough as oak at seventy-four, roughs it on the field as jauntily as a young lieutenant. Von Roon, the Prussian War Minister, older than either general or king, directs from Berlin the marshalling of hosts and gathering of supplies. Nor are these wonders confined to the German side of the controversy. Thiers, at seventy-five, flits with the vivacity of a boy from one camp to the other, is a negotiator of peace, and the executive head of the French government. Of his associates, Dufaure, the Minister of Justice, is seventy-three; Guizot, King Louis Phillippe's ex-minister, though past eighty, writes books with as much precision and force as when he occupied a professor's chair.

In England where men are reckoned young till they are past fifty, splendid examples of vigorous old age have not been wanting. Palmerston, Lyndhurst and Brougham, octogenarians all of them, led public opinion in Great Britain to the end of their days, and died in the harness. It is said of the first of the three, that after a field night in the House of Commons, he would be seen at daylight walking home at a pace which a young man could hardly equal. Thomas Carlple, over seventy, abates nothing of his intellectual vigor; while Lord John Russell, though creeping to eighty, still attends the Upper House of Parliament. Our own country, too, furnishes as striking instances of hearty old age. Stewart, Drew and Vanderbilt, the money kings of New York, are old men, as the years are counted, but still hold firmly in their grasp the great interests which they control. The grave has just closed over Dr. Skinner, who nearly half a century ago was famous as a preacher, and of whom it may be said, that to the last "his eye waxed not dim, nor did his strength abate."

Physiologists tells us that with a greater prevalence of a knowledge of the laws of health, the world may expect an increase of the average duration of human life. Are we already reaping the fruit of this better knowledge, in the prolongation of the vigor of the human species? The cases we have given are not of old age, enfeebled, retired, and barely tolerated, but of age still bearing the armor, militant triumphant. One could almost persuade himself that the golden era is near, and that these splendid examples are the first tokens of its approach.

The Normal State.—Voltaire said: "The more married men you have the fewer crimes there will be. Marriage renders a man more virtueous and more wise. An unmarried man is but half a perfect being, and it requires the other half to make things right; and it cannot in no wise be expected that in this imperfect state he can keep the straight path of rectitude, any more than a boat with one ore can keep a straight course. In nine cases out of ten, where married men become drunkards, or where they commit crimes against the peace of the community the foundation of these acts was laid while in a single state, or where the wife is, as is sometimes the cause an unsuitable match. Marriage changes the current of a man's feelings, and gives him a centre for his thoughts, his affections, and his acts."

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERG'S.

Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made,
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

People who travel by other routes, and also peoplewho, instead of travelling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest prices.

Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality.

RANGING FROM $6,50 to $18,00

Physician's persciptions and family receips carefully compounded by an educated and attentive druggist at all hours of the day and night. v3n1-1y.

I do not wish to inform you reader, that Dr. Wonderful, or any other man, has discovered a remedy that cures Consumption, when the lungs are half consumed, in short, will cure all diseases whether of mind, body or estate, make men live forever, and leave death to play for want of work and is designed to make our sublunary sphere a blissful Paradise, to which Heaven itself shall be but a side show. You have heard enough of that kind of humbuggery. But when I tell you that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will positively cure the worst cases of Catarrh in the Head. I only assert that which thousands can testify to. I will pay $500 Reward for a case that I cannot cure. A pamphlet giving symptoms and other information sent free to and address. This remedy is

SOLD BY MOST DRUGGISTS IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

Price 50 cents. Sent by man, postpaid, on receipt of sixty cents, or four packages for two dollars. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. See that my private Stamp, which is a positive guarantee of Genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. Remember that this private Stamp, issued by the United States Government expressly for stramping my medicines, has my portrait, name and address, and the words "U. S. Certificate of Genuiness," engraved upon it, and need not be mistaken. Don't be swindled by travelers and others representing themselves as Dr. Sage; I am the only man now living that has the knowledge and right to manufacture the Genuine Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I never travel to sell this medicite.

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.
A New Era In Medicine.

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable. read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts, and can have faith in evidence, read the following.

Know all men by these presents. That, on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydrick to me known as such, and being duly sworn deposed as follows: "That he is the sole general agent for the United States and dependencies thereof for preparations or medicines known as Dr. Maggiel's Pills and Salve, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITRE, Notary Public,
[L.S.] 14 Wall St. New York.

June 1st, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, Doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss. JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue, D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me, by him, about eight weeks after the accident:

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder. I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal: I tried Maggiel's Salve and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true and anybody can see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2d Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119 Greeck St.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvellous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nauses of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears, and the noise has left."

"Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar, your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your Pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail."

I Have over 200 such Testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS,

And all erruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS

Invariably cure the following Diseases: Asthma, Bowel Complaints, Coughs, Colds, Chest Diseases, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, Dropsy, Debility, Fever and Ague, Female Complaints, Headache, Indigestion, Influenza, Inflammation, Inward Weakness, Liver Complaints, Lowness of Spirits, Ring Worm, Rheumatism, Scalds, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, etc.

Call for these inestimable Medicines at your druggist's, and if you cannot procure them, send to this office.

endurance, and which has prevented the accomplishment of any public good.

8. That our confidence in the firmness, wisdom and integrity of our present worthy Governor, Jno. W. Geary, remains unshaken, and that we believe his qualifications for the office he now holds are unquestionable, as is clearly proved by the manner he has brought the State in safety through every storm.

9. That the administration of President Grant meets the full approval of the Republican party of Pennsylvania. His financial policy, by which the national debt is being steadily reduced; the reduction in the expenditures of the government; the honest collection of the revenue; his fidelity to the principles of human rights, through which the liberty of all is to be secured in every part of the land; his loyality to the people in having no policy to enforce against their will; and the spotless integrity of his administration.

After the reading of the resolutions had been concluded, a motion was made that the same be unanimously adopted.

The Hon. P. C. Shannon advocated the same in a most powerful speech ann on concluding, offered to amend the ninth resolution by adding the following: "and point to him as the honored leader of our party now, and the proper standard bearer of the Republican party in 1872.

Several gentlemen deprecated the amendment as being premature, but the same was ably defended by Russell Errett, of Pittsburgh, and Capt. John P. Ray, of Lancaster. The amendment and resolution were then adopted with deafening applause.

Mr. Errett then offered the following resolution, viz:

That the Republican State Central Committee for the ensuing year shall be constituted of the same number, and appointed in the same way as the present State Central Committee, the officers to consist of a chairman, three secretaries and a treasurer, to be appointed by the Committee.

Mr. Mann, of Potter, moved to amend by making the chairman of the Committee be Hon. Butler B. Strang, of Tioga.

Mr. Quay moved to amend the amendment to the resolution to read that the permanent president of the Convention and the two candidates this day nominated shall appoint the chairman of the State Central Committee.

After considerable debate, the amendment of Mr. Quay was agreed to, and the resolution as amended was adopted.

Mr. Shannon offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the people of Pennsylvania are due to General Hartranft and General Campbell for the able, faithful and efficient manner in which they have discharged the duties of the offices of Auditor General and Surveyor General.

The Convention then adjourned, sine die with three hearty cheers for the ticket.

An important circular just issued by the Treasury Department relative to the payment of interest on the registered stock of the new loans, states that these payments will be paid by check to the order of the person in whose name the stock is registered, and the check will be transmitted by mail to the address of the holder. When furnished otherwise it will be sent to the care of the Assistant Treasurer or Depository where the interest is to be paid. It is requested, in order to enable the Department to transmit these checks by mail, that all persons subscribing to the new loan, or having transfer made to them, will furnish their correct post office address, and advise the Department of any change at least fifteen days before the interest days.

The monthly report of the Agricultural Bureau contains reports from forty counties of the State concerning the condition of the winter grain crop. Of the forty counties only two, Tioga and Union, represent an inferiour prospect, and fully three-fourths report a more than average luxuriance. It is stated of Cumberland that "there are no poor fields and wheat could not look better." In Indiana "it is remarkably fine."—Though the fly has destroyed parts of fields, the fields of Lehigh present a finer appearance than for years, due in part to the fine weather and absence of winds during March. Wheat in Beaver and the western part of the State generally looks well, and the prospect for an abundant harvest is glad indeed.

William Quinten, a German, of Blacklick township, Cambria county, a turner by occupation, was seriously, and probably fatally injured, on Thursday week. He was gumming a saw at his horse power turning lathe, when the horse became frightened and set the machine in rapid motion, causing an emory stone which Quinten was using, to fly to pieces, one of which flew up and struck him on the forehead, crushing his skull.

The assessment of real and personal estate in Pennsylvania is $1,634,219,939—the largest of any State in the Union.

The terms upon which servant girls are engaged in Wyoming are $7 a week wages, and vote as the mistress directs.

Mercantile failures and great distress are reported from Louisiana and Texas in consequence of the low price of cotton.

The London and Southern Railway, leading to Dover, last year carried 9,500,000 passengers without a single accident.

One California grape-grower has a vineyard valued at $250,000. It yields annually from $30,000 to $35,000 worth of grapes.

Over two hundred women are now working farms on their own account in the States of Iowa and Indiana. This is official.

A clergyman offers up prayers for the legislature of his State, which, he says, is disposed to repeal even the Ten Commandments.

A Wisconsin editor was called out of bed one night to receive a subscription. After that he set up nights for over a week, but the offence wasn't repeated.

J. W. Knipple, of Mann's Choice, Bedford county, while attempting to hold a frightened horse, last week, was thrown down, and had a leg and rib broken.

Two tailors in Louisville had a fight, and one stabbed the other with a pair of shears. When he has killed eight more tailors they are going to try him for manslaughter.

Carrolton, Iowa, produces the latest monstrosity. It is a little girl, who was born minus the right hand, and the stub of the arm is a perfectly formed cat's head and ears.

There is a girl in Wisconsion who not only supports an invalid husband by working a forty-acre farm, but gives $200 a year to the support of her husband's grandfather.

A cat licked the face of a lady in New York and died in a few minutes thereafter from the paint it had gathered from the rosy cheek. Let all young men take warning by this sad cat-astrophe.

A Washington editor is mad because a compositor headed his editorial 'The Champagne opened,' when he wrote 'Campaign Opened.' He says that printer s always thinking about something to drink.

A young man named Simon Reed, a brakeman on the Cambria Iron Co's railroad, at the Johnstown works, fell off his train, on Thursday week, and the cars ran over him, crushing his head to a jelly.

Since two shots were fired through the windows of an editor's sanctum at Albany, the editors go around with iron breastplates in their pontaloons, and earthworks of boiler iron are being thrown up outside the windows.

An economical resident of Newburyport Mass., applied at the Post-office the other day for ten cents' worth of six cent postage stamps, and when told he must pay two cents more if he wanted two, he looked disappointed, and replied: "Wall, I spose I must have em anyhow, but seems to me they're dreadful dear."

Indian Depredations.—A dispatch dated San Francisco, May 14, says a forage train was attacked by Apaches, near Camp Verde, Arizona, and one Mexican killed and another wounded.—Eighty-seven cattle were captured. On the 5th inst., Lieut. H. B. Cushing, with twenty men of the Third Cavalry, were routed by Cacheis, a noted Apache chief with one hundred and fifty warriors in Whetstone Mountains, southeast of Tuscon. Lieut. Cushing, who was one of the most efficient officers in the Territory, and Wm. E. Simpson, a soldier, were killed, and the remainder compelled to retreat to Camp Crittenden.—Captains Sanwood and Moore, with forty men each, gave pursuit. The savages are committing numerous murders.

State Finances.—The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, consisting of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Auditor General, and State Treasurer, have just issued their monthly report for May 1871, from which we learn that the amount of loans redeemed during the month of April was 1,316,299,02, the principal part of which was composed of 6 per cent State bonds, and the remainder 5 per cent, bonds; for all of which the Commissioners paid 3 per cent, premium. The amount of debt redeemed and purchased since Nov. 30, 1870, is $1,515,674.19. The balance in the Treasury on the 30th of April, 1871, was $1,041,599. 81, about $250,000 of which is applicable to the payment of over-due loans, relief notes, and interests certificates. The total State debt on April 30th, 1871, was $29,595,987.71.

On the 1st of May, Gen. Irwin, late State Treasurer, vacated the Treasurer's office and transferred the books and funds to R. W. Mackey, his successor. Gen. Irwin paid during his term $3,037,250.25 of the State debt—an amount much greater than was ever extinguished in the State before, in one year, and exceeding the amount paid off in the preceeding year by $2,700,000. The saving of annual interest from this reduction of the principal is no less than $180,000.

At the rate the State debt was paid off last year the whole would be extinguished in less than ten years—and, if we deduct the nine millions of Railroad bonds now in the State Treasury from the principal, it leaves only $20,000,000 as the real debt of the State, which could be paid off in seven years.—Berks and Schuylkill Journal.

Catarrh is a common disease, so common that snuffling and "hawking" reach you at every turn. Your foot slips in its nasty discharge, in the omnibus or in church, and its stench disgusts at the lecture or concert. The proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offers $500 reward for a case of Catarrh that he cannot cure. Sold by druggists or send sixty cents to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive it by mail. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. The Genuine has Dr. Pierce's private U. S. Government Stamp on it.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.—In the matter of the estate of George Garbrech, late of Benner Township, dec'd.

The undersigned an Auditor appointed by the Orphans Court of Centre County, to ascertain lines and encumbrances upon the estate of George Garbrech, dec'd., and to make distribution of the proceeds of the said estate to and among the legal heirs and representatives of said decedent, will meet for that purpose at his office, in Bellefonte, on Monday, the 19th of June, 1871, at 10, A. M. when and where all interested may attend.

WM. P. WILSON,
v3n21-4t, Auditor.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseasses of the Throat and Lungs, Such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to cold and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgements we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remidies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either residence in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the Ague Cure daily.

For Liver Complaints, arise from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

PRICE, $1,00 PER BOTTLE.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID Extract Catawba GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubard and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick Or Nervous Headache, Costiveness Etc. Purely Vegetable, Containing No Mercury, Minerals Or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding caster oil, salts, magnesia etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS, OF DISSIPATION, ETC.,

in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflamation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLB'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a Face Wash, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of Cutaneous Affection. It speedily eradicates Pimples Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Indurations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels redness and incipient inflammation, hives, rash, moth patches, dryness of scalp or skin, frost bites, and all purposes for which salves or ointments are used; restore the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to undounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, safety and efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

The Great Medical Discovery!

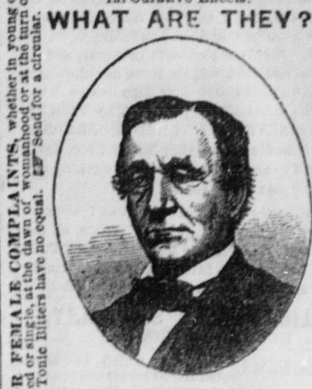
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands

Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?



They are a pure Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion of Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. Send for a circular.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

Revival Of Peach Trees.

A discovery of no smaall moment inthe interests of agriculture has been made by Dr. George B. Wood, and communicated by him to the American Philosophical Society, of which he is president. Peach trees in this vicinity after producing a few crops, not only cease bearing but perish themselves in a short time, whereas their natural life is fifty or sixty years, or more. The cause of this defective power of growth is believed by Dr. Wood to be owing to a deficiency of potash in the soil, and he assures us that if this alkali be supplied to the tree so that it shall reach the small roots and be absorbed the fruit-bearing power is restored, and the tree itself, if prematurely perishing is revived. Believing with most persons that the cause of the decay lay in worms at the roots of the peach tree, he put in operation a plan which he had seen his father perform more than fifty years before, viz: of digging around the base of the stem a hole four or five inches deep, scraping away all the worms that could be found burrowing at the junction of the stem and root, and filling the hollow thus made with fresh wood ashes from the fire, which of course retained all their potash. This was done in the autumn of 1868, and with a result in the following spring at which he himself was astonished. The trees appeared to have been restored to all their early freshness and vigor; they put forth bright green leaves, blossomed copiously, and bore a crop of fruit such as they had never borne before many of the branches breaking down under the load of peaches. Dr. Wood, in reflecting on these results, and noticing that several of the peach trees treated had no worms, came to the conclusion that we must look for an explanation to some other cause than the destruction of a few worms, and this cause he believes to be the ashes, the potash of which being dissolved by the rains, descended along the roots of the rootlets, and presented to them the very food for the want of which they were dying.—Decaying apple trees bearing stinted and a inedible fruit have been revived by a similar process, and with the like results. All of Dr. Wood's orchards gave promise of an abundant supply of fruits this season.

A Novel Idea.--Interesting Experiments.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Pennsylvania Society for promoting agriculture, held last week, General Pleasanton read an able and interesting essay on the use of blue glass in the development of vegetable and animal life:

The General gave an account of an experiment of his own with a grapery of eighty-four by twenty six feet, and sixteen feet in height at the ridge.

Into the glazing of the grapery, at every seventh row of white panes, a row of violet panes (blue not being at the time procurable) had been introduced, alternating on opposite sides of the roof, so that a violet beam might fall eventually on every leaf in the grapery. The cuttings planted had grown rapidly. The gardener was kept busy daily in tying up new wood which the day before he had not observed. In a few weeks after planting, the walls and the inside of the roof were closely covered with luxuriant foliage. A distinguished seedsman has borne his testimony that he had never seen any vines that equalled those thus treated.

The vines were planted in April, 1861. In 1862 they bore a wonderful number of branches. It was found that the building, small as it was, contained no less than 1,200 pounds of grapes. In 1863 the amount of fruit was quite as large as during the preceding year, and so it had continued season after season without abatement, the vines seeming to require no time to rest.

The next experiment was with the piggery. A glazed roof, half white and half violet, was placed over the building, and similar results were obtained, the animals thriving beyond expectation.

An Alderney calf, so puny and feeble that its life was despaired of, was placed in a pen under violet glass. In twenty-four hours a marked change had occurred. The calf rose to its feet walked about the pen, took its food from the finger, and manifested great vivacity. In a few days its feebleness had disappeared; it began, to grow and its development was marvellous.

The same principles have been applied to the raising of poultry with the most remarkable success.

POOR MAN'S CAKE.—Two cups flour, one cup cream, one cup sugar, one egg, one teaspoonful of soda, two teaspoonsful cream of tartar, mixed with flour.

Care of the Soil.

1. All soils are benefited by being underdrained, but the benefit is most apparent and lasting in those of a clayey nature or having a subsoil retentive of moisture.

2. After drainage, subsoiling and good crops on heavy soils.

3. Lime is the best manure to apply to strong clay soils. It renders them more previous to light and heat, and also corrects their acidity by combining with some of chemical salts in the soil, making plant food of poison.

4. Summer fallowing is the most efficient and profitable means of preparing strong soils for wheat, and of beginning a rotation, after grass has been grown a long time.

5. Green crops plowed under, when, in the most succlent state, are powerful auxiliaries in rendering a light soil fertile, but if this is done too often successively, the soil becomes overcharged with carbonaceous matter.

6. Leached ashes applied in large quantites to sandy soils, or those containing to much vegetable humus will greatly ameliorate their condition and render them more compact.

HOME NEWS.

SPINNER is going to Europe to recuperate. He is twisted all up with the signature disease.

A WISE man advertises extensively, because he believes that many columns furnish a good support.

THE Democratic Editorial Association will meet at this place on the second Tuesday of next month.

BURNSIDE & Thomas have the largest, best and cheapest stock of Boots and Shoes, at the lowest prices.

THE weather on last Saturday and Sunday was extremely warm, and linen coats from fifteen inches to five feet in length were quite numerous.

IT is stated that an unusually large crop of potatoes are being planted this Spring in the State, the farmers being stimulated by the present high prices.

SOME one has been going to the trouble of finding out the number of shoemakers in Pennsylvania. They are estimated to be 90,000. Awl right. Let them keep pegging away.

OUR old friend, J. G. Larimer of Pleasant Gap, who has, for the past six or eight weeks, been very ill with typhoid fever, is now, we are pleased to learn, improving rapidly and we hope he may soon be up, and about again.

WE have missed from our streets, for some time, our genial friend, Dr. Geo. F. Harris, and only learned, but a few days since, that he has been extremely ill with typhoid fever. He is some better at this writing, but not yet entirely out of danger.

JUST received at Montgomery's No. 7 Brockerhoff Row, a full supply of the latest styles of Linen, Drilling, Brown and White Straw hats. Also an assortment of Alpaca and Lined Coats. Call and see. Also white Cassimere high Hats.

THE new dwelling house now being erected by our enterprising townsman S. S. Lyon, Esq., on the corner of Curtin and Spring streets, is progressing rapidly, and will. when completed, be another ornament to that part of our town.

THUMB AMPUTATED.—David Kennedy, a brakeman on Conductor Waddle's train from this place to Tyrone, had the thumb of his left hand so badly injured while coupling cars on Monday last, as to render amputation necessary. Dr. Potter performed the operation.

IT is said that bleeding from a wound, of man or beast, may be stopped by a mixture of wheat flour and common salt, in equal parts, bound with a cloth. If the bleeding be profuse, use a large quantity, say from one to three pints. It may be left on for hours, or even days, if necessary.

ONE of the fashions of the season is to read over all the advertisements in the paper, and see if all the stores are keeping up with the seasons and styles. If you miss any familiar name from the list of business men, you can know that they are not keeping up with the times, and are keeping out of sight on this account.

NEW CHURCH.—The M. E. Congregation at Eagle Works, Curtin twp., have commenced the erection of a new church. The foundation is already up, and the completion of the building will be pushed forward rapidly. This congregation is small and with but limited means, and deserve much credit in their undertaking.

REV. P. COMBE.—This gentleman who is quite a prominent minister of the M. E. Church and justly celebrated as a Temperance Lecturer, will be in Bellefonte sometime during the present week. He will preach in the M. E. Church on next Sabbath morning, and in the week following, will deliver three or four lectures on the subject of temperanc

As next Sabbath evening will be the time for the regular Union service, we suggest that the above named gentleman be invited to deliver the sermon on that occasion. Such an arrangement would be acceptable and we doubt not, profitable to a large number of our citizens.

"THE gas works of this city passed into new hands on the first inst., and we are glad to add under fair prospects of making it a success. The following gentlemen compose the company: President, Samuel Christ; Treasurer and Secretary, T. C. Kintzing and Saml Christ of Lock Haven, and Adam Hoy John P. Harris and Daniel Rhoads of Bellefonte. The first step taken by the company was the reduction of the price of gas from $4.50 per 1,000 feet to $4.-00. The company will also endeavor to improve the quality of the gas, which they believe can be done at a less cost than has heretofore been expended.—The object of the company in making these much needed improvements is to extend their facilities throughout the thickly populated streets, and to sell their gas at prices that will induce the majority of our people to enjoy the advantages of good gas."—Clinton Republican.

THE Committee appointed for the purpose of counting the votes cast for the Rev. Benson Akers, late of Port Matilda circuit, now of Catawisssa Seminary, and Rev. E. Butler, of Half Moon circuit, and awarding the Quilt as indicated by said vote, the proceeds to be applied in liquidation of the indebtedness of the M. E. Church at Port Matilda, met in Stormstown on Tuesday, the 2d day of May. Rev. E. Chambers, P. B. Waddle, Jacob Gray and A. R. Barlow being absent (being part of the original committee) the following Brethern were substituted:—John Chambers, Porter Burket, J. V. Gray and John H. Lever. After being dully organized, proceeded to count the votes cast, whereupon it appeared that 437 votes had been given to Rev. J Benson Akers, and 163 votes for the Rev. E. Butler.

The said Rev. J. Benson Akers having received the majority of the votes cast, we the undersigned, do hereby award said quilt to the Rev. J. Benson Akers with our kind regards, and for the information of all concerned, we annex the following statement

MESSRS. BARGER & BROWN.

Gentlemen:—It will be observed from the above statement of the committee, that the proceeds realized from the above stated election amounts to $162,-50. That Half Moon, though numerically and financially much stronger than Port Matilda circuit, was not out on the day of the election, only 151 votes having been cast by them at a cost of $37,-75. Inasmuch as some of their most reliable men said they were able and would cast five votes in that circuit for every vote cast in the Port Matilda circuit. It was so published in your columns a few weeks since, and it is now due to the public to say that your correspondent then was in error, or the Brethern had forgotten their promise.—If that fine expectation had been met, it would have enabled the congregation at Port Matilda, to have worshiped in a church unencumbered with debt, as it is, it leaves a balance of nearly $400 to be provided for. If any should regret that they did not get an opportunity to vote, they still have the privilege of contributing to the same object for which the election was held, and may forward said contributions to the Trustees at Port Matilda, as one good Brother from Half Moon has already done.

C. O. WHIPPO.

BELLEFONTE FOUNDRY.—Mr. Isaac Haupt has at the Bellefonte Foundry some of the best mechanics in the country and consequently he is prepared to do work at short notice and in the most satisfactory manner. He will make castings and all kinds of work. Anything usually done in Machine shops and in Blacksmith shops he is prepared to do, He will manufacture new wagons and repair old ones. Also Bryans Improved Worts plows. Cultivators made or repaired with the reversable steel tooth. He will also keep constantly on hand the "Times Cook Stove," the best in the world. He will also have on hands, and for sale at all times the best and cheapest japanned tin ware, all kinds of tin and sheet iron ware. All of these wares will be made to order. Merchants and others will do well to call at his mammoth store, opposite the Bush House, and purchase from him at wholesale. Isaac has made up his mind to fill all orders and never to be undersold.

YOU will be sure of receiving the full value of your money paid for any article, at Burnside and Thomas.

REDUCING THE ARMY.—The daily order from the War department authorizes the discharge of quite a number of enlisted men, and preparations are being made to muster out about four thousand before the 1st of July, in accordance with the act of July 18, 1870, which authorizes and directs the President to reduce the number of enlisted men in the army to 30,000 by July 1st, and provides that thereafter the number shall not be larger than that unless authorized by law. To provide for this reduction, company commanders have been directed to report to their regimental commanders the names of all indifferent soldiers who ought to be discharged for the good of the service.—Department commanders have been directed to issue the necessary orders for such discharges before the 30th of June.

THE following items we clip from the Philipsburg Journal:—Information has reached us of the fearful death, by burning, of a child of Wm. Shimel, sawyer in the mill of Long & Co., at Morrisdale. We have been unable to learn the particulars of the sad affair....The newly laid out lots of Chester Munson on South Centre street, are nearly all disposed of. Mr. Henry Stockbridge, last week purchased one of them, between the property of E. A. Davis and F. Chickering.....On Saturday last Jacob Stofel, employed as teamster by Messrs. Adams & Johnston, while leading a horse into the stable of L. W. Munson, was kicked by a horse standing in one of the stalls, breaking two of his ribs.....A team of horses came up Front street last Saturday, at a swing ing pace with nothing attached to them but a harness, and followed by a man who appeared to be very anxious about something. They were stopped without injury to any one.....The severe and unseasonable frosts of the past week have undoubtedly injured the fruit crop in this section. Blossoms upon the trees were touched so that those which opened one day would be found black and withered the next.....There was very near a fire in the vicinity of Second street the other day, from the ignition of a roof through which a stove pipe passed without protection. We mention this merely as an item of news—not as a warning, for our oft-repeated warnings on this head seem of no effect. .....The miners at the Morrisdale Collieries resumed work on Saturday last, at the old prices and without having gained any of the points for which they struck. A change, however, has been made in the weigh-master, of no importance in its effect upon the demand of the men. Everything is running smoothly and the usual amount of coal daily leaves the mines....A fire broke out in the hotel of Mr. David Persing, Houtzdale, Clearfield county, on Saturday night, totally destroying it. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary, and the building was a total loss, as it was uninsured. The scene at the fire is reported as having been riotous. Two or three barrels of whiskey are supposed to have been spirited off to the woods and secreted. Pugilistic exercises on the following day were generally indulged in.....While Mr. R. Swartz, of Kylertown, was driving up Front street, on Saturday last, with his wife and three children in the buggy, his horse shied at the band wagon of the Menagerie, and showed a disposition to be fractious. Mr. Swartz and a son jumped out, but his wife and two small children, not so fortunate, were violently thrown out, the buggy passing over the arm of one child. Mrs. Swartz was so severely stunned by the fall that she was not in a condition to be removed from the house of Mr. Wm. Jones, where she was carried at the time of the accident, until the following morning. The injury to the two children was not serious.....A serious accident occurred to a colored man named John Moulton, in the employ of Mr. J. F. Steiner, by which he lost the lower portion of a limb. He was returning from Clearfield to Steiner's—which is a railroad station—but the train passed the depot without stopping. As soon as he discovered this, he hastened to the platform and jumped off from the forward car, while the train was moving, striking the bank and throwing one foot under the cars, which passed over and crushed it. Drs. Pierce and Potter were summoned and found it necessary to perform an amputation, which they did, taking off the leg about midway between the knee and ankle. There are many speculations as to why the train did not stop as usual, but as we can gain no correct information on this point, we pass it by.

PURE fruit sirups used with Green's "Arctic" Soda Water.

DRUGS &C.—The new Drug store of Messrs. Zellar & Jarret on Bishop street is a pleasant place indeed. It is a delightful place to sit and while away a few moments, listening to the mellifluous notes of a dozen or more Canary birds. Their Soda fountain is in full operation, and their stock of Wall Paper, Drugs, Medicines, Toilet Soaps, Hair Brushes and fancy articles generally are the very best in town. They are pleasant fellows and have a magnificent store. Call and see them.

TO KEEP a boquet as good as new, sprinkle it lightly with cold water, and put it in a vessel containing some soap suds. Take it out of the suds every morning, and lay it sideways in fresh water, the stock entering first into the water; keep it there a minute or two, then take it out, and sprinkle lightly with pure water; replace the flowers in the soap suds, and they will bloom up as freshly as when gathered.

"CLEANSING THE BLOOD," Upon which charlatans have harped so much, is not a mere catch-word and delusion. The microscope shows that some diseases exist like parasitic growths upon the globules of the blood, and it is further known that some subtle substances destroy or expel them. These substances have been combined to make Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which does effectually expel the disorders that breed and rankle in the blood to rot out as it were the machinery of life. Supt. Willis, assisted by W. W. Woods, a skillful miner from the Danville region, will have charge of the project.....C. S. Sprague, traveling agent for Ayer & Co., met with an accident beyond Yeagertown last week, by his horse scaring at some object, throwing him out, and dragging him some distance. His watch and pocket book were both lost, but the former he found and the latter was returned by Davis Bates, minus a few papers which had been blown about by the wind.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.

The cherry crop is somewhat hurt by frost throughout the county. Apples, so far, are unhurt.....The roof of the Broad Top warehouse took fire on Saturday afternoon last and was slightly damaged.....Thos. Burchinell & Son, of this place, have been awarded the contract for building a new railroad depot at Hollidaysburg.....An old gentleman an employee in Burchinell's Planing Mill, had one of his fingers injured by some of the machinery and it was amputated by Dr. Brumbaugh on last Tuesday morning. The machinery over there has been taking off a number of fingers—we expect to hear of it taking a "whole hand" some of these days.

BLAIR COUNTY.

The Altoona Tribune says that on Saturday evening week, as the Fast line pulled out from the station, Depot Master Wilson noticed a man or boy, under one of the cars, and imagining that the object of the individual was to take a ride on one of the trucks, he immediately telegraphed to Gallitzin to stop the train and make examination. The train was stopped and the Inspector found a half-grown boy perched on one of the trucks. How he had succeeded in maintaining his position was a mystery, but such things are not uncommon. Not long since, the Inspectors in this place found two men on the trucks of the night passenger train when it arrived from the West.....The Hollidaysburg Standard says that several severe frosts last week, have pretty effectually used up the fruit in this Bailiwick.....Altoona's Vigilant Steam Fire Engine company will strawberry festival on the 14th, 15th, 16th and 17th prox.....Simon Reed, employed as a brakeman on the Cambria Iron Company's railroad, was instantly killed on Tuesday of last week....Hollidaysburghers are not pleased with part of the new schedule. .....Altoona is emphatically a city of "shop-keepers" having no less than 174 of 'em, or as many as there are in the balance of the county.....The culinary department of Comph r's hotel, Altoona, was slightly damaged by fire on Tuesday of last week.....Several "moral" young men recently visited Tyrone, and having been induced to sample the whiskey sold in that flourishing city, stopped at the premises of Geo. Dixon, about a mile west of Tyrone, and stole a mare which they eventually allowed to return.....The Altoona Radical informs us that the dwelling and outbuildings of Stewart Corbet, near Marklesburg, was destroyed by fire on Sunday last..... The Morrison's Cove railroad from Martinsburg to Pattonsville, is assured, the money having been nearly all raised..... A little daughter of John Rence, of Hollidaysburg, was kicked by a horse and had several teeth knocked out, on Friday last.....The fountain just completed in the yard of the new Vigilant Engine House, in this city, is beautiful in design and reflects great credit upon the company.....Mordecai McMahon and George Smith, of this city, were committed to jail week before last, charged with knocking down and robbing Mathew Riley, of a $100 watch and chain.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY.

We clip the following items from the Journal of the 17th inst, :—The contractor of the new jail has commenced "planting" the foundation stones. From appearances it will be a solid affair, when completed.....We understand that some damage was done to the growing grain crops, in this county, by the recent heavy frosts. The fruit was also seriously damaged.....Numbers of rafts are tied up all along the river, having failed to reach a market on the last flood. This is much to be regretted, as a failure to get the lumber to market has considerable of a tendency to create a stringency in money matters in this county.....Mr. John Weaver's carriage, driven by his young son, was, by some mishap, upset near Goodfellow's bridge on Saturday last. The carriage contained a lady and four or five children, but fortunately no one sustained serious injury, notwithstanding the carriage was literally smashed to pieces.....We learn that at about 2 o'clock on Sunday morning last, the large and commodious hotel, together with most of the furniture and goods, belonging to Mr. David Persing, in Houtzdale, this county, was destroyed by fire. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Loss about four thousand dollars. No insurance.

Execution of Edward H. Rulloff, the Learned Murderer.

HIS LAST HOUR ON EARTH—IMPENITENT AND DEVOID OF RELIGIOUS FAITH.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., May 18.—At precisely 11:38 o'clock this forenoon, Edward H. Rulloff was hanged in the yard of the Binghampton jail, for the murder of Frederick A. Merrick, on the 18th of August. He died with the same firmness he has exhibited from the hour of his arrest.

His last night was somewhat restless and he slept but little. At 6 o'clock this morning he was removed to a room on the second floor of the jail, so that he might not see the final preparations. This room had a window opening upon the hill outside, on which hundreds of people were gathered at an early hour, and he frequently, during the morning, exhibited himself at this window, and was seen by the crowd, but was annoyed by the publicity.

Many incidents which happened during the five hours he was there showed that his nerves were yet unshaken, and that he was to be as good as his word, and die as he had lived, without whining. At 10.20 he was requested to present himself to be dressed for the final scene, but he did it himself, declining all assistance. In the meantime those holding permits to enter the yard, about 200 were admitted, and placed in order. At 11.20 the condemned man entered the yard attended by Sheriff Martin, Sheriff Root, of Tompkins, and Deputy Sheriff Brown. The prisoner walked without support under the noose, which having been arranged, Sheriff Martin read the death-warrant, which occupied some minutes.

He then asked Rulloff: "Have you anything to say why the sentence of the law should not now be carried into effect?" The prisoner answered in his natural voice, "not anything." The Sheriff then asked if he desired any further delay, and received a negative reply, by the shake of the head of the condemned. All this time the prisoner was standing unsupported, and gave no sign of emotion, except a gentle swerving of the body. At 1.35 the signal was given and he was jerked up with tremendous force, but his neck was not broken. The instant the body settled down upon the rope the spectators were horrified by seeing his right hand naturally raised and thrust into the pocket of his pantaloons.

There was no other movement except slight muscular contractions, and after hanging fifteen minutes the heart ceased to beat. The death was by strangulation. The body will be buried by the Sheriff, by the side of the burglars, Jarvis and Dexter, in Potter's Field.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

BINGHAMPTON, May 18.—Edward H. Rulloff, the learned murderer, died impenitent and devoid of religious faith, refusing to the last all attempts at religious conciliation.

Rulloff's is one of the most remarkable cases of utter depravity on record. His stern, unyielding nature held out to the last, and he made no confession. The cheerfulness which had characterized his couduct previously wore off as the hour of his death approached, and he was on several occasions visibly excited and agitated. But this he dispelled by an evident effort. No priest or clergyman accompanied him to the scaffold. The State militia were present for the preservation of order. The spectators outside the jail gradually increased during the forenoon, several thousands being present when the execution took place. A limited number, however, were only permitted within the limits of the jail. The body was cut down after hanging for about thirty minutes.

Rulloff communicates a long article to the Binghampton Leader on his philological work. It closes as follows:

"4.10—My task is done; my object is attained. The tracing of these words at once to a fundamental form and to the proper names of heathen mythology exemplifies the theory of language perfectly restored. When familiarity with the subject shall prove its intrinsic interest, when experience shall show its importance to the cause of education, when efforts further to extend its principles shall demonstrate how difficult the work, then, and not till then, will the value of my labors be duly perceived, or any just estimate be formed of the immense research by which alone success was attained. That malignity and ignorance should here also prevail is already to be mourned. It is greatly to be mourned that they persist in maintaining erroneous constructions against one whose life has been so employed, and that even in a moment of brilliant success they —— one who has done and who could and would have done so much for the intellectual advancement of his race. Respectfully,

E. H. RULLOFF.

NATIVE WINES.—Some time since we stopped at Passaic,, and were really surprised to see the old store house there all filled with wine on storage.

The amount of Mr. Speer's stock of Port Grape Wine on hand is almost fabulous. Four storehouses are filled, and tiers upon tiers of casks up and down stairs, and in some cases huge vats, occupy every available spot, leaving only little alley ways through which to walk. It is an illimitless quantity of wine. None is sold until it has acquired the age of four years and the buildings, 1, 2, 3 and 4, are of the first, second, third and fourth years vintage. Our druggists have some of the oldest of the above wine direct from Mr. Speer.—Paterronian.

THE COAL TROUBLES.

SCRANTON, Pa., May 19.—The miners of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Company to day decided to accept the offer of the company—ninety-three and one-half cents per diamond car. Work will be resumed on Monday.

Over eight thousand people attended the funeral of Jones and Davis, who were shot by Kearns. Merchants of Hyde Park closed their stores, the two murdered men having been peaceable, religious, and respected citizens. Kearns through his counsel, has applied for a hearing in order to secure bail. If the offence is homicide he will be allowed bail. The hearing comes off at Wilkesbarre, and eminent counsel are employed on both sides. The contest will be virtually between the W. B. A. and the corporations. The miners of Wilkesbarre will all turn out.

THE Travelers Life and Accident Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., conducts all its business in a most equitable manner, and with a careful regard to the interests of its policy holders. Insurance agents accidents is comparatively new, but of importance and benefit to the public generally.

Housac Tunnel, Mass., which has heretofore been so fruitful of accidents was on Saturday afternoon last, the scene of a most frightful tragedy. During a thunder storm a ball of electricity struck the ground near the entrance, and following the iron rail into the tunnel, exploded several charges of nitro-glycerine, blowing four workmen into hundreds of pieces, and fearfully injuring two others.
